Hindi Pakhwada

From 14th to 28th September 2023, the Hindi Pakhwada was celebrated by Literary Club of the Gramgeeta Mahavidyalaya, Chimur.

Under the joint ages of Gramgeeta Mahavidyalay, Chimur and Maharashtra State Hindi Sahitya Academy a thought provoking symposium was successfully organised on the topic "Problems and Solutions of Acceptance of Hindi in the entire country", in which the students of the college were given proper guidance on various aspects of this subject. This symposium organised under the Hindi mahotsav being celebrated by Maharashtra Rajya Hindi Sahitya Academy was presided over by Dr. Amir Dhamani, principal of Gramgeeta mahavidyalay, Chimur in the prominent presence of Dr. Ashwin Chandel, principal of Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj Mahavidyalay, Chimur. Dr Vijendra Batra, Executive member of Maharashtra Rajya Hindi Sahitya Academy and principal of Sarvodaya college, Sindewahi was invited as the chief speaker in the symposium.

The symposium was inaugurated with garlanding on the statue of Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj and lightning of the lamp. Dr. Prafull Bansod, vice Principal of Rashtrasant Tukdoji college, briefed about the objects of the event principle Dr. Ashwin Chandel and Dr. Vijendra Batra were felicitated by presenting Shawls and the idol of lord Ganesha. Dr. Chandel said in his address that when a college or university sports group goes from Madhya Pradesh to Jammu and Kashmir to participate in a sports competition the players and managers do not face any problem in communicating, but when the same group goes to South India, serious problem of mutual communication arises.

Dr. Vijendra Batra, the chief speaker of the seminar, while giving proper guidance to all the students, said that if all the languages are respected and use appropriately by considering Sanskrit as grandmother, Hindi as Mother or elder sister and regional languages as younger sisters, then the linguistic problem will be solved.

Describing Hindi as Mother Ganga he said that the flow of Marathi, Bhojpuri, Awadhi, Bundelkhandi, Marwadi, Pahari, Punjabi and Maithili languages is found in it in the form of continuously flowing stream, then the acceptance of Hindi increases from Central to Northern and from eastern to Western parts. But, those who used the languages of South India often called

Hindi and imposed language and question the acceptability of Hindi, therefore Hindi speaking people like us should work as a communication bridge between south and the rest of India by studying at least one language out of Tamil, Telugu, Kannada or Malayalam as an optional subject at the college level.

Also, the government should make efforts to teach those courses in Hindi by making available books software, audio visuals in Hindi and regional languages on subjects like medicine, business and engineering, so that the importance of English will gradually reduce in the coming years. He said that with the advent of the new education system it is essential to stay the national unity by increasing the acceptance of Hindi in the entire country in the next 10 years. Dr. Amir Dhamani in his presidential address propounded the need for balance knowledge acquisition in the mother tongue, official language and English.

He appealed to the students to increase their knowledge of Hindi and get employment opportunities in the entire country. He said that when students from rural areas go to urban areas they become disappointed when their linguistic knowledge decreases there. The Symposium was moderated by Dr. Bijankumar Shil and vote of thanks was given by Miss Sartaj Maladhari. In the successful organisation under the guidance of Mr. Sachin Nimbalkar Co-director and secretary of Maharashtra Rajya Hindi Sahitya Academy, IQAC coordinator Dr. Nilesh Thaokar, Prof. Humeshwar Anande and Dr. Yuvraj Bodhe played an active role.

Marathi Bhasha Gourav Din

On 19th February 2024, the Marathi Bhasha Gourav Din was celebrated in the Gramgeeta Mahavidyalaya, Chimur. On this occasion, the principal Dr. Amir A. Dhamani was present as chairperson of the event. As chief guest Dr. Padmakar Wankhede, Dr. Madhavrao Chute and Dr. Nilesh Thaokar were present. The event was anchored by Prof. Ms. Shradha Doijad. Towards the end of the program, Literary Club convener Dr. Bijankumar Shil has announced an Essay Competition for students on the topic “Marathi Bhasheche Vaishishtye”.
