Social Justice Day

Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj's birth anniversary and Social Justice Day were celebrated by Equal Opportunity Centre in a collaboration with Minority Cell, SC-ST Cell and OBC Cell at Gramgeeta Mahavidyalaya Chimur on 26th June 2023. 26th June is the birthday of Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj. This day is also celebrated as 'Social Justice Day' by the Government of Maharashtra. During his rule, Rajarshri Shahu Maharaj introduced many revolutionary schemes in the caste discriminating system to promote equality. He also started compulsory free primary education in all his states. Rajarshri Shahu Maharaj was a visionary and social reformer who was driven towards the development of his people and the betterment of the socially deprived sectors.

The programme was chaired by Dr Amir A. Dhamani sir and Prof. Humeshwar Anande, head department of Chemistry & Dr Nilesh Thaokar, IQAC coordinator has took position as dignitaries on dais. President of the program mentioned, Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj was a great social reformer of Maharashtra. He advocated reforms in primary education, caste discrimination, untouchability, etc. He was the first ruler in India to implement the policy of reservation.

In the year 2006, the government established a committee of history scholars. The committee of historians submitted its report. Since then, the birthday of Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu Maharaj is celebrated as 'Social Justice Day'. Social reformer kings have been many, social revolutionary kings are hard to find. It is said that Shahu Maharaj's name is still remembered as such a rare act of becoming a king. For the succession of programme all the teaching and non-teaching staff were present.
